

The World

Published by the Press Printing Company.

TUESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 1.

SUBSCRIPTION TO THE EVENING EDITION.

(Including Postage.)

PER MONTH.....$3.00.

PER YEAR.....$35.00.

VOL. 29.....NO. 9,996

Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second-class mail matter.

IN A NUTSHELL

A Record Never Approached.

DURING THE WORLD HAS PRINTED and sold ten copies for every one in the United States—two copies for nearly every man, woman and child.

THE total estimated circulation of all the 1,423 daily papers in the United States is only fourteen times that of THE WORLD.

THE total weight of all THE WORLD printed during the past year exceeds Seventeen Million Pounds, and would have required a freight train five miles long to transport them.

ONE single day of THE WORLD, with the columns placed end to end, would have made a band around the equator. In book form it would have made more volumes than in any library on earth.

THE past year had only 31,622,400 seconds, but it had over 104,473,600 WORDS, or nearly four WORDS for every second in the year.

What Other Newspaper Printed HALF AS MANY Copies During 1888 and What Are the Exact Figures?

Brooklyn Theatres.

The "Yeoman of the Guard" was given at the Academy of Music last evening by the Brooklyn Opera Company, and a large audience attended. The opera was put on the stage in the same careful manner as the Casino production, "Pretty Fanny Rice," in the part of Phoebe, and was repeated several times. The scenery and costumes are much the same as those used in the opera, and the entire production was under the supervision of Mr. Richard Baker. A special matinee will be given to-day.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

Seldom is Brooklyn favored with such an excellent all-around company of actors as the Academy of Music last evening. The Brooklyn Opera Company, who have opened a week's engagement at the Academy of Music, have given a most successful performance of "The Yeoman of the Guard," which has been a great success.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

The "Twelve Temptations," was produced at the Grand Opera House last evening. The piece, which runs through the character of the temptations of half a hundred people to bring it out, was entirely successful. Among the notices the piece in the cast were Miss Adah Richmond, David M. Murray, Burton Stanley, Stanley May and Miss Jessie West. During the progress of the play, the audience was introduced to the acrobatic performances of Judge Brothers and a variety of other acts.

WHAT THEY'LL DO.

Some of the Good Resolutions Made by Our Citizens.

Promises Which It Is to Be Hoped Will Be Fulfilled.

If They Are Carried Out There Ought to Be Good Times in 1889.

It is customary on New Year's Day for men to turn over a new leaf, and, taking warning by any mistakes and shortcomings of the past twelve months, start anew with good resolutions.

Heretofore these good resolutions have passed unrecorded, and have been fulfilled, forgotten or broken without the knowledge of any but those who made them. To-day, however, reporters of THE EVENING WORLD called upon citizens of New York of good repute and got them to place themselves courageously on record as to what is the nature of their good resolutions. These are the answers they received:

TO BE A GOOD MAYOR.

Mayor Grant—Do the best I can for the city as its Mayor and merit a continuance of the endorsement of the people. I have resolved that I will be as prompt as possible in the discharge of my duties.

Ex-Mayor Hewitt replied to the question with a silent shake of his head.

Mayor's Private Secretary, Thomas C. T. Crain—I don't make any New Year resolutions. I keep the whole year good.

BOURKE COCHRAN'S NEW LEAF.

W. Bourke Cochran—To be good.

Clerk Taggart, of the Mayor's Office—I'm going to keep sober.

Mayor's Stenographer Sherman—I don't make any. To be good, I suppose, is proper.

TO BE GOOD TO THE POOR.

Commissioner of Charities Porter—To be good to the poor.

Capt. Twomey, Recording Clerk of the Board of Aldermen—I am as good as I can be now. Why should I turn over a new leaf?

John B. Sexton, who remains in the Sheriff's office to close up the business of Sheriff Grant's administration. To do my best in the past.

Order of Arrest Clerk Barney Martin—To congratulate the new Mayor, trusting that his administration will be in accord with the views of the people.

Thomas Moore, Mr. Martin's aide lieutenant—Do the best I can for the next three years.

WILL STRIVE TO BE PRETTY.

Caleb Hedford, the fair and handsome veteran reporter of THE EVENING WORLD—Continue to be as pretty as ever.

Sheriff Flock—To take possession of my new office with the determination to do my duty honestly, obeying the law and serving the people of New York City faithfully.

Under Sheriff Thomas F. Gilroy—Resolutions as to emergencies occur. I'm too busy to-day to make any resolutions, but will continue to perform my duty right as I can.

CAN'T REFORM ANY MORE.

Justice Andrews, of the Supreme Court—I got over my New Year resolutions some time ago. I am so thoroughly reformed that I don't think fresh resolutions necessary.

Clerk Black—I've resolved to make every one that I can happy. Have peace and work for prosperity.

HE IS DEVOUT.

Clerk Hart—To be good, and love the Lord. Officer Dick Cook—I'll handle my prisoners with care, and make them, while they are in my hands, as easy as I can under the circumstances.

Jake Schneider, Corner Elnor's clerk—Resolves to make his machine a deep black. It's red now.

City Marshall Martin, of the Second District Civil Court—I have resolved to confine my fishing yarns to cold facts.

TO STOP SMOKING AND DO HIS DUTY.

Assistant District Attorney John B. Lindsay—A dead fact that I have resolved to stop smoking, also to continue discharging my duties faithfully.

Benj. F. Dos Passos, Assistant District Attorney—I have resolved to be a better man.

Andrew H. H. Dawson, Assistant District Attorney—Yes, I have made one resolution, and that is not to say anything to any one that I don't want the whole world to know.

IF HE BECOMES MAYOR.

Chief Clerk William M. Penney—I have resolved that if ever I become Mayor, I will put only newsmen in the city hall, and no other kind of newspaper men.

Assistant District Attorney Fitzgerald—I have made the resolution to build a burglar-proof fence.

Detective-Sergeant Killick—I've resolved to let well enough alone.

Oscar Reel, C. F. Fellow's messenger, says: A dead fact that I have resolved to stop smoking, also to continue discharging my duties faithfully.

Detective-Sergeant Korman—I have resolved to live a peaceful, quiet life as possible.

TO BEHOLD IT ON WEATHER?

Sergeant Dunn, Signal Service—I have resolved to get all the money I can.

John W. Carl, of Zipp's Casino, Brooklyn—I will try and teach my new baby to sing.

TO MOUNT HIGHER.

Policeman McNeills, of the Fourth Precinct I have resolved to become a roundsman.

"Uncle Eddy" Smith, stock clerk of a well-known drug house—I have resolved to become a stronger Democrat than ever.

W. H. Messmer, of Dana's studio (weight 250 pounds)—Have resolved to reduce my weight.

WILL FORGET CIGARETTES.

Harry Robinson, 10 Maiden Lane—I have resolved to stop smoking cigarettes.

W. J. Carl, same address—Try and win all amateur running races in Brooklyn this year.

C. P. Follett, Sixth street, Brooklyn—I have resolved to get up a baseball nine that'll beat anything that goes to the park.

Joseph Jenkins, 10 Maiden Lane—Try and win another gold watch in a church fair rally.

John B. Conroy, the Fulton street sporting goods dealer—Get a vacation this Summer and enjoy myself a little.

FULTON MARKET RESOLUTIONS.

Richard Marshall, of Blackford's—I have resolved to live up to the Golden Rule.

Louis Hines—Have resolved to stop buying diamonds and put the cash in the bank.

George W. Thur—Try to do better during the coming year than I did during the past.

Willie Hartz, his son—Attend Sunday-school more regularly.

Henry Wolcott—Well, I've been so good during the past year that I don't see how I could improve any.

Charles Smith, who is said to be the dandy of the market—Go hunting on Long Island.

John Ferguson—Get around earlier in the morning.

Canehan Brothers—Will not invest in any more canines.

John Krause—Think I'll study Graco-Roman wrestling.

Martin Miller, who was the strongest Democrat in the market—Reduce the number of cigars I smoke to three a day.

W. H. Page—Stop teasing Dick Marsland.

Benny Coogan, who the boys say has lately

come into a small fortune—Treat my friends right royally.

John Shea—Try to do my work so that the boss won't find any fault with me.

David Freeman—Go to Washington to see Harrison inaugurated.

Charles Hens—A general reformation.

Joe Sailer—I have resolved to get married within a very short time.

Charles Maurer—Will take a trip to Florida, soon as war is over.

Henry Clow, banker—Resolved not to get intoxicated, to live moderately and to push business.

J. Hood Wright, of Drexel, Morgan & Co.—I have made no resolution.

Geo. B. Hopkins, of McCormick, Kennett & Hopkins—We have all resolved to do a larger business if possible.

L. G. Quinlan, of L. G. Quinlan & Co.—I've resolved to be better if possible. But it is hardly possible.

Jaques Fiel, the leading trainer of the Consolidated Exchange—I have resolved to cut all the needy members of the Exchange during the coming year.

Dick Pressner, of Pressner & Lorain—Resolved to put my money in oil instead of election bets.

Russell Sage could not be seen. It was said, however, that he has resolved not to split up two-dollar commissions with the door-tender, and that bribes of apples will not be accepted during 1889.

Jim Seymour, of mining fame—Will put the stock of the Phoenix up to par during the next year.

CORNER LEVY'S ASPIRATION.

Corner Levy—I aspire to all that is good and beautiful in politics.

Corner Nugent—I am like the man who, after working in the Navy-Yard thirty years, was then turned out. I have resolved that politics is a very mysterious and wonderful science and demands very careful study.

Corner Messmer—I have resolved not to leave any more expensive overcoats where thieves can get their hands on them.

Chief Clerk John T. Toal—To be as good as the past and, if possible, to be better, is my new leaf for next year.

ANOTHER NON-SMOKER.

Sergeant Farley—I have decided to give up smoking.

Sergeant McCarthy—I'll tell no more fables.

"Benny" Williams, of H. L. Horton & Co.—"Board" man—I'm disgusted with Kilrain and Mitchell and will give all fighters the cold shoulder.

HENRY GEORGE MAKES ONE.

Henry George—I have resolved to do what I can for free trade and the single tax, and I recommend THE EVENING WORLD to do likewise.

Walter Koeh—I have decided to stick fast to the United Order of American Carpenters and Joiners, and attempt to use my power to fill the ranks of the succeeding members.

HILL BE A MILLIONAIRE.

Charles P. Rogers, Delegate of the Marble Workers' Union—I have resolved to save my money and become a millionaire.

John Morrison, President of the Progressive Carpenters' Union—I have resolved to find out the cause of the strike of the carpenters.

Edward Finkelstein, ex-President Barbers' Union—After New Year's I am going to continue in my good work.

Edward Conklin, of Progressive Painters' No. 1—I have been so good that I am of no use for me to make any good resolutions.

Michael Kiernan, Walking Delegate House-Smiths' Union—We have resolved to improve all along the line.

George Warner, ex-President of the House-Smiths' Union—I have resolved to read every issue of THE EVENING WORLD, and get every Union man I know to do the same thing.

I WANT TO STAND BY UNION LABOR.

Robert Farrell, United Order American Carpenters and Joiners—I have mentally resolved to knock out all "scab" carpenters wherever I find them.

William J. Farrell, President Lodge 1, United Order American Carpenters and Joiners—I am resolved to stick to the Order.

John Thompson, Treasurer Lodge No. 1, United Order American Carpenters—I am firmly resolved that never to maintain the United Order as long as it is in existence.

NOT ONE LEAF, BUT THE WHOLE BOON.

John McFall, Delegate of the Progressive Carpenters' Union—It is the usual custom to turn over a new leaf on New Year's day, but this time I am going to turn over a whole book.

George McVey, delegate of United Piano Makers' Central Labor Union—I have resolved to let the lyre who brings discord in organized labor.

William A. Hotchkiss, Delegate of Trunk-Makers' Union—I'll make no resolutions I will have none to break.

Robert Davis, Delegate of Operative Painters' Union—I have resolved to invite all the operatives to my house to-day, 239 East Thirty-fourth street.

Isaac Wood, delegate of the Pressmen's Union—I will press for the advancement of organized labor.

Charles Sotheran, delegate of the Excelsior Labor Club—I have resolved during 1889 to devote myself to the cause of organized labor more than ever.

Thomas Riordan, President Ale and Porter Brewers' Protective Association—Resolved to boycott Stevenson & Kohler's ale because they will not recognize organized labor.

TO STICK TO HIS UNION.

Garry A. Lyman, Secretary Ale and Porter Brewers' Protective Association—I have resolved to stick faster than ever to our Union, for in union there is strength.

Daniel Close, Delegate of Ale and Porter Brewers' Protective Association—I have resolved not to drink ale made by scab brewmen.

CAREFUL ABOUT HIS DRINK.

John O'Connell, ex-President Ale and Porter Brewers' Protective Association—I have resolved to boycott the boss ale brewers.

G. W. Price, Master Workman District Assembly 64—I have resolved to put labor politics in the soup.

Tom Jackson, Venerable Sage of Local Assembly 9, 490—I have sworn off swearing off.

John Mahan, Financial Secretary of L. A. 4, 490—I have, as usual, resolved to talk straight next year.

John T. McKelvey, of the Horace Greeley Club—I have to swear off every New Year's.

H. F. Mamre, of the Monogram Grocers' Club—I have resolved to change my beverages during 1889.

Michael Moss, of United Order of American Carpenters—I have resolved to stay at home and spend my New Year's quietly.

SHE SMOKED OPTIM.

Mrs